SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

Two members of the Associacion Cultural Obrero Peruano-Argentána (ACOPA)* recently made a trip to Argentina at the invitation of the Butchers' Guild of Buenos Aires. The trip was arranged through the office of the Argentine Labor Attache to Peru, and the expenses were reported to have been covered by ACORA. On 11 August, ACORA held its first secting in several weeks, in order to velcome back Jorge Canadio and Moises Caballiero, the delegates, and to receive an account of their trip. Zamudio and Caballero presented a glowing, detailed description of their stay in Buenos Aires and of the cordial recention extended to them by the backing-house workers. Lamuelio stated that he had had an audience with Eva Peron, who woon learning that the two Peruvians had traveled everland from Idna to Duenos Aires, arranged for return trip tickets to Lina via Braniff Airways.

Consent. The ACOM was formed in Line in December 1919 (see ider the indirect spansorship of the Argentine Embassy, to create closer nolitical ties between workers of the two countries and to better the collaboration of the two countries in respect to the "liberation" from the economic yoke of the United States,
